ORDER OF BUSINESS

II. APPROVAL OF AGENDA and MINUTES

M/S/C Miriam Trejo/Barajas to approve the agenda as submitted

M/S/C Miriam Trejo/Campos to approve the minutes from September 8, 2016 as submitted

III. NEW BUSINESS

a. Student Discipline

As of today no major student discipline cases have been referred to the Office of Student Affairs. Several instructors have referred students for minor offenses, i.e., cell phones causing disruption during class time.

IV. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

a. Cultural Festivities on Campus for Community Wide Participation

The Associated Student Government held a very successful Hispanic Heritage celebration the evening of September 30, 2016. Eight campus clubs fundraised during the event. Over 300 attendees were present to enjoy the activity. Overall, the event was well organized.

ASG President Bermudez would like to see more cultural events on campus. Dean Martinez-Inzunza would like the ASG to plan a Multi-Cultural event possibly to be held early March 2017. The ASG will be extending an invitation to our local community members. This item will be placed at the next agenda.

b. Student of the Month award for each Academic Department, Division and IVC

The Student of the Month award was discussed. Mr. Baukholt volunteered to share this with the English Division at their next staff meeting. Mr. Baukholt strongly encourages this to be shared with all Division Chairs as well as Dr. Akinkuoye, VP for Academic Services.

A subcommittee conformed by Ms. Santana, Mr. Baukholt, Student Reps., Chavez and Barajas along with Dean Martinez-Inzunza will be meeting sometime next week to begin a draft.

c. IVC House of Student Delegates

Dean Martinez-Inzunza continues to meet with the potential students' delegates. An update will be provided at the next committee meeting.

d. Foundation scholarship participation, Academic Scholars

Dean Martinez-Inzunza will be attending the next Foundation Board Meeting to discuss this item. More information will become available at the next meeting.
