

Library Instruction Session Quiz*

- Which of the following items is not included in the library catalog?
 - Videos
 - eBooks
 - Magazine/journal articles
 - Table of contents for books
- Which of the searches listed below should give you the greatest number of results when searching in a database?
 - Civil Rights AND United States
 - Civil Rights OR United States
 - Civil Rights NOT United States
- Which of the following is not one of the criteria for evaluating websites?
 - Website appearance
 - Author's credentials
 - Currency of information
 - Purpose of information
- To access library databases from outside the library, which of the following must you have?
 - An Imperial Valley College G-number and WebStar PIN
 - A computer with Internet access
 - An Imperial Valley College ID card
 - All of the above
 - Options A and B
- Look at the following citation example. What best identifies the item in BOLD text?

Banville, John. "A Different Kafka." New York Review of Books 24 Oct. 2013: 17-19. Print.

 - Journal Title
 - Article Title
 - Series Title
 - Publisher
- When searching for an article in a database, what does the term "full-text article" mean?
 - The whole article is available in a print journal or magazine
 - The full abstract of an article is available in the database
 - The entire text of the article is available electronically
- If your professor requires you to use "peer-reviewed" articles for a research paper, this means that the articles have been:
 - Reviewed by other students in the class
 - Chosen by the professor
 - Quoted in the textbook
 - Reviewed by experts in the field
- Where in the library do you go to check out books?
 - Circulation desk
 - Reference desk
 - Technical services
 - Librarian's office

*Adapted from:

Bryan, Jacalyn E., and Elana Karshmer. "Assessment in the One-Shot Session: Using Pre- and Post-tests to Measure Innovative Instructional Strategies among First-Year Students." College & Research Libraries 74.6 (2013): 574-86. Print.