John,
I believe that as long as it is handled independently and like any other student it should not be an issue but it should be pretty transparent in case it becomes an issue.

Hi John,

Can you see if this Nonresident Tuition Waiver that we are considering implementing at Imperial Valley College is legal within our CCCAA Constitution Bylaws? The waiver is open to all students who reside at least 200 miles away from the main campus and all of it is handled by the Admissions Office.

Thanks!
