Mission:

The mission of the Office of Institutional Research is to lead, coordinate, and support initiatives and projects related to planning, assessing, examining, and reporting on the accomplishment of IVC's mission by providing innovative, timely, relevant, and accurate information that supports data-driven decision-making in the Imperial Valley Community College District.

Purpose:

The Office of Institutional Research is the research and planning office for Imperial Valley College. The OIR provides the Imperial College Community with information about our students, staff, programs, and effectiveness. We also provide data and analytical support for the following:

- Research
- Institutional Effectiveness
- Resource Development
